the bull position of the best top of the Empire State Building as to testify in secret before a senate investigating committee. He begged me not to reveal his name because he would then be on the Cuben (Castro) hit list."

MRS. LUCE respected his wishes and didn't reveal his identity to Schweickor. Nor did she when she was interviewed last year by investigators with the House Assessinations Committee.

The other two Cubens were not available for testimony. One was deported "right after they had reported to the FBI" in 1963, she said, and the other was knifed to death in Miami.

The Miami lawyer said he and theother refugees in 1963 took the phote graphs and tape recordings to the PBI so Mrs. Luce advised. He told her the FBI took the photos and tapes, roughed them up and told them to screen and keep their mouths that and disappear of they would all be deportwith booms of their on dence is stmething I do not knew," Mrs. Luce said. "The incident was never reflected in the Warren H myself have always entertained the theory that unable to prove that the assassination was backed by the Castroites — but perhaps suspicious of it — the Kennedys end the Johnsons and the whole government decided to say nothing about it since even to raise the suspicton might have plunged us into e war with Cuba."

When the three Cubans called Mrs. Luce in the early morning on the day efter the essassination, they were not strengers. They hed known her as crew members of a Miemi-besed boat she had secretly "sponsored" for reids end other missions egainst Fidel Cestro's government.

The boat excursions ended and the trio was dispersed to New Orleans when Kennedy ordered a hait to such activities in early 1963. "I myself got a personal call from Allen Dulles (then a former CIA director end later a member of the Warren Commission)," Mrs. Luce said, "He said get out of that boat business - he was well aware of it, by the wey - because the neutrelity act has now been rest. serted end it was egainst the law to aid or abet the Cubens in any ettempts to free their country."

MRS. LUCE said the former crew members celled her "beceuse they wanted to inform me of enything they could that would, so to speak, put the finger on or clarify the motive of Oswald."

or of the Colombia on was inaccurate, and maybe inlly so. Warren Commission deter-ed the Correlat was the easy active Plat of the Pair Play for Cabe Committee in New Orleens; no one has ever claimed his "committee" conducted meetings at which he spoke.

Mrs. Luce still believes her Cuban friends took their photos of Oswald to the PBI "because soon after photographs appeared in the Dallas naners showing Oswald handing out handbills" in New Orleans. Those photos, however, were taken by newstren. The refugees' early knowledge of any trip by Oswald to Mexico, however, thdicated they had intelligence sourch es. Not even the CIA briefing on Oswald's mysterious visit to Mexico

City was given to President Lyndon Johnson until hours after the Luce call. Then, on Nov. 23, 1963, CIA Director John McCone told Johnson about Oswald's "visits" to the Cuban and Russian embassies in Mexico City in lete September and October of 1963. The CIA claimed it had photographed and taped Osweld's visits. But leter, after will, the Warren Commission was not so informed. The Lace inc t was similar to a ged misinformation by people with o mation by people with opvious injuli-gence connections to lifth Ordell to Castro immediately after the assessing-

THE IMPRESSION of Oswald the Cuben refugees left with Mrs. Luce "was e Communist gun-for-hire" who et first didn't have much money but who "had suddenly come into enough money to take trips (to Mexico) and to bring his wife to New Orleans.

Her husband, Henry, would have been an ideal conduit to disseminate the refugees' story nationally through his Time or Life magazines, but Mrs. Luce didn't take the heit.

Two days after Mrs. Luce's call from the Cubens in New Orleans, a Nicaraguan named Gilberto Alvarado Ugarte told personnel at the American embassy in Mexico City that he was in the Cuban consulate on Sept. 17, 1963, and saw Cubans who were discussing assessination pay Oswald $6,500.

The CIA end Werren Commission later concluded the story was a fabrication, but President Johnson and Americen intelligence agancies at the time were concerned it might lead to a confrontistion with Castro's Cabe in a plant to be "Osweld had been neid by (Pe Charles to carry out an unidenti mission which involved accus shooting." The FBI also got a copy of a letter written to Robert Kenn which claimed Oswald assessinated brother "et the direction of Pedr Charles, e Cuban (Castro) agent" and was raid $7,000 by Charles in Miami in early 1963. The Warren Commission concluded the letters were a hoax be didn't consider whether they were per of a misinformation plant by intelligence sources.

Another early attempt to plant misinformation was not known to the Warren Commission in 1963-1964, but was told to the House Assassinations Committee by e witness deemed credible by committee investigators.

HE WITNESS was Autonio Vec of Mismi, one of the founders of the militant group of anti-Castro exiles ion called Alpha 66. Vectana said thet soon ? after the assassination an American intelligence agent, known only by his alias of Maurice Bishop, "solicited me to intercede with a cousin of mine who worked in the Cuhan embassy in Mexloo to see if he, for money," would agree to say he saw Oswald in the Veciana told the committee Bishop ... was "the man behind the scenes" in Alpha 66's ettempts to assessinate Castro Veciane said he saw Bishop with Osweld - severel weeks before Oswald left for Mexico City - in the lobby of what probably was the Southlend Center in Dallas. The committee was unable to identify or locete Bishop.

The assassination of Kennedy by Castro forces would have echieved "basically nothing" for Castro because Kennedy "was their (Castro Cubans) best ally," said the militantly anti-Castro Mario Kohley Jr., son of the late official de facto president-in-exila of the Cuban government

"He (Kennedy) was their best ally." Kohley said. "He was preventing us from leeving our (United Stetes) shores. He had made a secret deal with (Nikite) Khrushchev not to ellow env more Cubans to leave American weters end go to Cuba to herass Cestro. So actually I thought it was to Castro's adventege to keep him alive.

Kohley said he thinks It "very possible that the essassination was de anti-Castro Cubans in the hopes of making it look like Castro had done it. Which would have given us a green light for our invesion of Cube."

Clare Boothe Luce ... "What became of their evidence is someknow."
